Already the badges of red, white them the grey heads, and cheerful old countenances which have made everybody smile and happy the last few days in trying to make them happy. The greatest credit is due to those who got up and successfully carried through so enormous a task. Even were it not with those men a labor of delight, which, as Shakespeare says, "physics pain," the splendid success achieved would have been its reward. May it be repeated every year.

Boot Blacks Fined.

A day or two ago we mentioned that three boot blacks, two white and one colored had been arrested for stealing pistols from Henry Phelps. The boys were kept in jail until yesterday when they were tried. The evidence was convincing and they were fined $50 each and costs. As they have not the filthy lucre with which to pay these fines, they will assist in beautifying the streets a number of days equal to the number of dollars in the fine.

SUICIDE.

Charles Bune Ends His Life Prematurely.

About noon, to-day, a great deal of excitement prevailed on Main street, in consequence of a report that Charles Bune had committed suicide by taking laudanum. The particulars as far as our reporter was able to ascertain were as follows: Between 10 and 11 o'clock, this morning, Mr. John Colclough went to the drug store of C. L. Peebles and called for 25c. worth of laudanum, which was furnished him in a one-ounce bottle, by Mr. S. S. Scramm.
The vial which was full of the drug was labeled "poison," and Mr. Scramm cautioned Colclough to be careful not to move the label from the vial. Colclough then took the bottle to Charles Bune (by whom he had been sent to purchase the drug) when the latter (Bune) drank a little over one half of its contents.
Colclough tried, but in vain to prevent the rash act. Shortly afterwards Bune fell into a deep stupor, and became prostrated. He was then sitting in a chair at the livery stables of Mr. Wm. Carroll.

Marchall Alma Keys' attention was called to the condition of the young man. He went at once for Dr. John D. Carnahan, who soon arrived, but too late. Life was extinct—still the doctor did all he possibly could to resuscitate the young man, but in vain, notwithstanding the faithful efforts of himself and Dr. Powers, on whom he had called for assistance. The pulse had ceased to beat, and could not be revived, even by means of the electric battery, which was charged for this purpose by the physician.

At 2 o'clock p. m. an inquest was held before C. F. Middleton, Esq.
Several witnesses were examined, among whom was Dr. Carnahan.
He testified to being called to attend the deceased; and stated that on his arrival he found that life was extinct. He was shown an ounce bottle which contained a little less than half an ounce of laudanum, and which was the vial from which young Bune had drunk the drug.
The doctor was asked if he thought the quantity which had been taken from the bottle was sufficient to cause death. The doctor said he did not think this quantity of laudanum alone would cause death immediately—still it might.

It is believed that young Bune had taken some of that kind of drug previous to taking the last dose; he had, in fact, intimated as much, and that he had thrown away the other bottle which had contained it.—

The "Minstrel Medley."

During the engagement of "Sam'l of Posen" at the Opera House, the orchestra was furnished with the "Minstrel Medley," which they rendered with one rehearsal. Mr. Curtis was so much pleased with the manner in which the piece was rendered that he presented a copy of it to Mr. Careless. This selection will form part of the musical programme at the Theatre on Monday night, when the Home Dramatic Club give between J. C. Graham and H. L. A.

Culmer, under the firm name of J.
C. Graham & Co., has been dissolved. Mr. Graham assuming all responsibility and liabilities, and collecting all debts. It is also announced that Messrs. J. C. Graham and L. S. Mead, have formed a co-partnership under the firm name of J. C. Graham & Co., and that they are now prepared to do all kinds of job and book work. They thank

Fire.

Just after 11 o'clock last night the fire alarm bell rang out, and those on the street, in looking about to see where the fire was, beheld flames and smoke issuing from the rear part of the building occupied by John Crane, just east of the Deseret National Bank building. In a few minutes the firemen were on the spot, and though everything was favorable to a big blaze, the structure being of lumber and containing much combustible material, the flames were checked before they had gained any great headway. The fire was discovered in the loft in that part of the building in the rear of the HERALD office. There seems to be little doubt that it was the work of an incendiary, and this opinion is entertained by Mr. Crane himself, as well as by others, as there was nothing in the building itself which could cause a fire to start. Mr.
Crane is unable to tell the extent of his loss at present, but thinks now that $1,000 will cover everything.

A Voice from the Press.

I take this opportunity to bear testimony to the efficacy of your "Hop Bitters." Expecting to find them nauseous and bitter and composed of bad whiskey, we were agreeably surprised at their mild taste, just like a cup of tea. A Mrs.
Cresswell and a Mrs. Connor, friends, have likewise tried, and pronounced them the best medicine they have ever taken for building up strength and toning up the system. I was troubled with constipation, headache and want of appetite. My ailments are now all gone.
I have a yearly contract with a doctor to look after the health of myself and family, but I need him not now.

The Minstrels.

Another large audience assembled at the Walker Opera House last evening to witness the second performance of Haverly's consolidated Mastodon troupe. There is no question as to this being the most thorough and perfect organization of its kind, and last night's work was only another confirmation of the success achieved by the troupe wherever it has appeared.

A complete change of programme is announced this evening, when the company appears for the last time. The songs and jokes in the first part be will new, as well as the specialty and other acts. The entertainment will conclude with "Aunt Jenkin's Tea Party," a burlesque piece which carried Denver away on its production there.

This afternoon, at 2 p. m., a matinee will be given, at which a large audience is looked for.

Wool.

Gen. H. B. Clawson is now act-no person in the territory is better there is no person with whom the wool-raising public, as a whole, would rather deal. He will pay the highest cash price to all persons selling their wool to him, and his long standing in business is a guarantee that he will do whatever he promises to. His warehouses are in this city and at Ogden, at which points he is accessible to parties from all portions of the territory.

The Ontario.

Some time ago the Ontario sprung a leak, and the water filled the mine up to the 600-foot level. This was the occasion for rumors which have found their way into newspapers that the mine was flooded with water, and some went so far as to state that it would take a year to get the water lowered so as to allow of a resumption of work on the three lower levels. The water is held at the 600-foot level, and in a few days, when a portion of a pump expected every day, if it has not already arrived, reaches, the water will be speedily lowered and kept down.

A Slanderer Exposed and Dared.

LEHI, UTAH COUNTY,
June 30th, 1882.

Editors Herald:

An extract from the Salt Lake Tribune, of the 25th inst., accidentally came to my notice, in which the writer relates how a special correspondent of the New York World went into ecstasies over the town of Lehi, "the chastity, temperance," etc., of its inhabitants, and to show how said correspondent had been gulled, says: "The truth is that up to a few months ago Lehi for three years that the bride did not become a mother to soon by several months.
The town contains several hundred inhabitants, marriages were frequent but there was no exception to the rule." This slander is a base lie and I challenge the writer to produce the proof, in default of which I will publish him as a slanderer and liar.

Over 400 Carried.

The HERALD stated that, on Thursday, Abram Gould, the champion queer man, had given the use of a number of his fine teams to carrying the old folks to and from Liberty Park, and that himself had worked like a beaver among those adorned with the red, white and blue. Some one kept track of the number which Mr. Gould's teams carried, and it was over 400 souls.
These were all aged people, as Mr.
Gould declined to yield to the giddy whims of the children under 70 years of age; but those who had arrived at that prime age where honored with a ride behind his sleek and spanking teams.

Salt Lake vs. Ogden.

Ogden has accepted Salt Lake's challenge, and will send its best nine here on the Fourth to contest superiority in base ball skill. Many of the nine are reported as being first-class players who have figured prominently in the east and on the coast, and there is every reason to believe that the Salt Lake picked nine will have their hands full.
Both clubs will doubtless appear in uniforms, the Ogden club having just had made a very elegant one.
As most of the home nine are old members of the Red Stockings they will probably play in the old uniform worn by that club.

There seems to be an awakening of interest in base ball here as well as in California and the east, and in all probability the coming contest will be an interesting one, being the first out of three games arranged for to determine the championship of the Territory.
